DETAILED ACTION

With the limitations of claim 5 to m=1 and Y to halogen, and the submission of the proper translations, the rejections over Handa 20050043531 are overcome, as well as the rejections under 35 USC 112.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims as written cannot be considered enabled. Alternatively, they are not written properly.

Claims 20-21 have an optional pair of steps, in which the salt present is removed and HCl is added. This is in error, and does not make sense. Moreover, it is not what the specification provides. Page 5 states, "Cefepime is subsequently crystallised, if necessary after separating the organic solvent, and where appropriate after removing any salt that is present, for example after treatment using anion exchangers by known methods after adding hydrochloric acid from an aqueous acetonetic solution." In this sequence, the HCl comes first, and then there is the salt removal. Note the correct language of amended claim 9, which again has the HCl first. Claims 20-21 have the reverse order, which is not correct or supported by the specification.

Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The wording of HCl "from an aqueous acetonetic solution" does not make sense. This is a solution which is containing HCl (as applicants correctly states in the remarks). Replacing "from" with "in" will fix this, and would not be new matter.

Claims 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

For claim 4, solvated with what? Claim 20 does not provide for solvate. Changing "solvate" to "hydrate" will fix this matter.

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 20 has no definition for m. We are told that there is an optional isolations step when m is 1, but there is no actual statement that m is limited to 1.

Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

1. Claim 21 is garbled, in that the reaction of IV with thiourea is now omitted, which is not correct, because without that, IV remains just IV, not I.
2. Note that one line below Formula IV, the line ends with "wherein optionally the compound of formula V" --- but this is unclear. There is no verb. Where did this V come from? That is, doing what, exactly, is optional?

Claim Objections

Claim 2 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claim 2 does not in any way limit claim 20.

Claims 3, 8-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Applicants' attention is called to 7339055 and 7479556. Applicants may wish to comment on whether or not applicants believe that there is interfering subject matter present.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
